Objection to Release Student Information

Federal law provides for the release of student information under certain circumstances unless a student files a written objection. If you wish to file such an objection, please complete this form and sign it at the bottom where indicated. Your signature indicates that you understand that even if you file a written objection, West Georgia Technical College may in certain circumstances be legally required to provide student information to third parties. For example, if the school received a court order or subpoena to produce your student records, the school would be legally obligated to respond.
