WGTC Grad is State’s Top Tech Student

Elizabeth Rodriguez, a May 2021 Registered Nursing graduate of West Georgia Technical College, was named the state’s top technical education student for 2021. Technical College System of Georgia Commissioner Greg Dozier presented the Georgia Occupational Award of Leadership to Rodriguez, a Newnan resident, May 26 on West Georgia Tech’s Coweta Campus.

As the grand prize winner, Rodriguez received a brand new, made-in-Georgia, 2021 KIA K5, courtesy of KIA Georgia and delivered by Ed Voyles KIA of Chamblee. Rodriguez is the first West Georgia Technical College student to win the state-wide GOAL award.

“I couldn’t be more thrilled to be titled as this year’s State GOAL winner! This win comes as a collaborative effort and is dedicated to my community,” Rodriguez said. “I aim to fulfill my purpose of serving others and sharing everything I have learned and will continue to learn as I pass along these cherished moments of success.”

The GOAL program, now in its 49th year, recognizes the most outstanding technical education students at the 22 TCSG colleges. As the award winner, Rodriguez made public appearances as a representative for technical education during throughout the year, including meeting with Governor Brian Kemp and addressing the Georgia General Assembly.

“We are incredibly proud of Elizabeth and honored that she chose West Georgia Tech for her educational journey,” West Georgia Tech President Dr. Julie Post said. “She is the best representative of why we do what we do in technical education every day.”
