

WGTC 8.3

Fees and Access to Instructional Resources

Adult Education classes are provided at no cost to students. Students are provided with instructional materials and resources during class time and may qualify for access to distance education resources for use outside of class time as well. However, distance education resources are limited and students must meet criteria in order to be eligible to access these resources. Print materials are not available for loan for use outside of classrooms.

Though Adult Education classes are free, students wishing to test for the General Educational Development (GED®) or High School Equivalency Test (HiSET®) credential will be subject to testing fees required by the State of Georgia.
